Ireland—The Irish Civil Servants

Amendt. on Committee of Supply July 4, To leave out from "That," and add "the 'Civil Service (in Ireland) Commissioners' having reported that the dissatisfaction on the ground of 'the general inadequacy of the present scale of salaries, having regard to the great increase which has taken place in latter years in the cost of living,' is well founded; and that 'there is no reason, based on local considerations, for giving salaries to Civil Servants stationed in Dublin less in amount than those assigned to persons in London performing analogous duties,' this House is of opinion that such general inadequacy of the present scale of salaries of the Civil Servants serving in Ireland should as soon as possible be redressed, and that they should be placed upon an equality as to remuneration with those performing duties in England corresponding in difficulty and responsibility" (Mr. Plunket) v., [216] 1805; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after debate, Question put; A. 117, N. 130; M. 13; words added; main Question, as amended, put, and agreed to

Ireland—The Shannon Navigation
Question, The O'Conor Don; Answer, The Chancellor of the Exchequer Feb 13, [214] 368
Amendt. on Committee of Supply Mar 7, to leave out from "That," and add "the evils brought upon a large portion of Ireland by the periodical floods of the Shannon and her tributaries are attributable to the state of the navigation works, and to the neglect of the recommendations of the Commissioners appointed under the Act 5 and 6 Will. 4, c. 67; and that the navigation works, which are the property of the Government, and under their exclusive control, are far behind the present state of engineering science, and admit of great improvement at a comparatively moderate cost; and that it is reasonable and right that, whilst amply maintaining the means of public navigation, measures should be forthwith adopted to relieve a district of many hundreds of miles of the vast and unnecessary suffering inflicted upon it by the useless impounding of the waters of the River Shannon" (Mr. Mitchell Henry) v., 1569; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after debate, Amendt. withdrawn

Irish Railways—Purchase by the State
Question, Mr. Goldsmid; Answer, Lord Claud Hamilton April 25, [215] 976
Moved, "That this House, whilst expressing no opinion on the subject of State ownership or State management of Railways in other parts of the Empire, is of opinion that it is desirable (having regard to the universally expressed wishes and wants of the Irish people) that the Railways in Ireland should be acquired on equitable terms by the State, with a view to their management being conducted in the interests of the public: this measure to be carried out in such a way as not to involve any loss to the finances of the Empire" (Lord Claud Hamilton) April 29, 1141
Amendt. to leave out from "That," and add "the purchase of the Irish Railways by the State would be financially inexpedient, would unduly enlarge the patronage of the Government, and seriously increase the pressure of business in Parliament" (Mr. Goldsmid) v.; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after long debate, Amendt. withdrawn; main Question put; A. 65, N. 197; M. 132

Scotland, Church of — Patronage
Moved to resolve, that whereas the presentation of ministers to churches in Scotland by patrons under the existing law and practice has been the cause of much division among the people and in the Church of Scotland, it is expedient that Her Majesty's Government should take the whole subject into consideration with the view of legislating as to the appointment and settlement of ministers in the Church of Scotland (The Earl of Airlie) June 17, [216] 1032; after long debate, Motion withdrawn

Scotland—Church Rates
Question, Mr. M'Laren; Answer, The Lord Advocate May 19, [216] 102
Moved, "That the levying of local rates and assessments on lands and houses for the erection and repair of Churches and Manses in Scotland, for the supposed benefit of a minority of the population, is unjust in principle, and the cause of great dissatisfaction amongst the people; and looking to the hopes held out by the Government on the subject, this House is of opinion that a Bill should be introduced by the Government during the present Session of Parliament, to remove the existing grievance" (Mr. M'Laren) June 27, [216] 1522 [House counted out]

SPEAKER, The (Right Hon. H. B. W. BRAND), Cambridgeshire

Amendments — No second Amendment until first disposed of—Mr. Speaker said that there was an Amendment before the House —that the Bill [Labourers Cottages (Scotland) Bill] should be read a second time that day six months—and until that Amendment was disposed of, no other Amendment could be moved, [217] 465

Bills—Money Clauses—Rating (Liability and Value) Bill—Order for Consideration, as amended, read. Mr. Craufurd said he understood that the President of the Local Government Board was about to import into the Bill certain clauses [which he referred to] —Mr. Speaker said, that if the clauses to be proposed by the right hon. Gentleman imposed any new charge they must be moved in Committee of the Whole House, [217] 402, 403

Amendments varying the incidence of a rate come within the rule, and the Bill must be re-committed with respect to the clauses affected, 413

Bills — Delay in circulating a Bill after Leave given—In answer to Colonel Stuart Knox, who complained that copies of a certain Bill had not yet been distributed—Mr. Speaker said, that leave was given by the House for the introduction of the [Borough Franchise (Ireland)] Bill upwards of six weeks ago, and that on the same occasion the Bill was ordered to be printed. No doubt it was opposed to the usage of the House that so great a delay should take place between the Order of the House for the printing of the Bill and the circulation of the Bill among hon. Members, [216] 276

Bills—Alteration in Bills after Leave given—An hon. Member who has obtained the leave of the House to introduce a Bill is at liberty to suspend the introduction of that Bill and to alter it in any way he thinks proper, provided it is not so altered as to be inconsistent with his original Leave.—University Tests (Dublin) Bill, [215] 303, 304, 305, 306

Bills—Alteration in Bills actually before the House—There is no principle more clearly laid down in this House than this—When a Member has introduced a Bill to the House it ceases to be in that Member's hand, and passes into the possession of the House. No essential alteration of that Bill, at any stage, may then be made without the distinct order of the House. The House has laid down a clear course for Members to take if they desire to make any essential alteration in a Bill of which they have charge at any stage.

That course is to ask the Leave of the House to withdraw the Bill and to present another instead thereof

Under such circumstances, no Notice on the part of the hon. Member in charge of the Bill is necessary in order to raise the Question whether he should or should not be permitted to present another Bill, [215] 303

Bills—Notice of Postponement—If an hon. Member be desirous of postponing a Bill of which he has charge, it is the ordinary practice to allow him to move its postponement without Notice, [214] 194

Debate—Effect of agreeing to Motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." The House having already declared that the words "That I do now leave the Chair" stand part of the Question, the hon. Member's Amendment cannot now be moved: therefore it is only open to him to call the attention of the House to the circumstances he has brought forward.—Supply—Administration of the Police, [215] 994, 1739

Debate—Effect of moving the Adjournment of the Debate—Right of Speaking a second time—A Member who has moved "That the Debate be now adjourned" is not entitled to address the House a second time in withdrawing that Motion.—Register for Parliamentary Electors, &c. Bill, [215] 719

East India Revenue Accounts—Committee, Moved, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." Mr. Fawcett moved, "That the Debate be now adjourned." On representation made, Mr. Fawcett asked whether he should lose the right of speaking on the Main Question if he made one or two observations to explain why he moved the Adjournment of the Debate? Mr. Speaker said the hon. Gentleman was entitled to speak on the Motion he had made for the Adjournment of the Debate; but he could not speak again on the Main Question

If the House allowed him to withdraw his Motion, he might then speak on the Main Question, [217] 1405

Debate—Effect of Motion, "That this House do now adjourn"—Mr. Gladstone having moved "That this House do now adjourn." Mr. Dillwyn proposed to move that the Salmon Fisheries Bill be committed pro formâ. Mr. Speaker said, the Question before the House is "That the House do now adjourn." The hon. Member cannot interpose with his Motion.—Resignation of Ministers, [214] 1912

Debate—No debate when no Motion before the House—Statements having been made to the House as to the proceedings pending the Resignation of Ministers, hon. Members desired to address the House—Mr. Speaker said there was at present no Motion before the House. The House had just heard the Ministerial Explanations; but it would be irregular to continue the discussion without some Motion before the House; therefore, according to the usual practice, it would now be his duty to proceed with the Notices of Motion, [214] 1945

Debate — Sufficient Notice and Motion — Mr. Secretary Bruce having laid upon the Table a Copy of the Substituted Rules under the Parks Regulation Act, proposed to state the substance of those Rules—Mr. Osborne rose to Order, and asked whether it was open to the right hon. Gentleman to enter on the subject, seeing that there was no Notice on the Paper with respect to it? Mr. Speaker said, the right hon. Gentleman had stated in his place that he intended to lay on the Table the new Rules with reference to the regulation of the Parks; and, in pursuance of that Notice, he was now about to move that those Rules do lie upon the Table. The proceeding was quite regular

It was then asked whether, as the statement was likely to lead to a debate, the right hon. Gentleman intended to conclude with a Motion? Mr. Bruce said, that all he desired to do was to state the substance of the New Rules. It was objected that, in that case, he was not entitled to make any statement whatever. Mr. Speaker said, the right hon. Gentleman must necessarily conclude by moving "That these Rules do now lie upon the Table;" and upon that Motion a debate might arise, [214] 200

Debate—Premature reference to a subject—It is irregular to anticipate under cover of a Question, the discussion of a Motion which is set down for future consideration, [216] 962; [217] 358, 576, 577

Debate—Reference to a Debate in the present Session—Latitude in Observation—An hon. Member is out of Order in referring to what had occurred in a Debate in the present Session; but it was usual, in cases like the present, where personal explanations became necessary, to grant considerable latitude

Whatever the explanation required, the hon. Member to whom reference was made ought to be in his place.—Conventual and Monastic Institutions Bill, [216] 1783

Debate—Reference to a subject now before a Court of Law—Mr. Whalley, in moving for Papers connected with "The Tichborne Case," proposed to make comments upon the case itself. Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Gentleman is certainly out of Order in discussing proceedings that are at this time sub judice.—The Queen v. Castro, [216] 960, 961

Debate—Relevancy of Debate—Mr. Speaker reminded the hon. and learned Member that the Motion before the House was that the Order for the Second Reading of the [Landlord and Tenant] Bill be discharged. To go into the merits of the Bill upon such a Question would be quite out of Order, [216] 1648

Debate — Relevancy of Debate — Question, "That this Bill, as amended, be considered on Thursday next"—On this Motion no Amendment can be moved, except as to the time at which the Consideration of the Bill should be taken; and therefore any discussion not relevant to an Amendment of that kind is out of place, [217] 358

Debate — Resumption of a Debate adjourned by the Six o'clock Rule—According to the Standing Orders of the House, the debate stood adjourned till To-morrow, when it would rest with the hon. Member for Sheffield to propose a day when it should be continued.—Factory Acts Amendment Bill, [216] 828

Debate—Unparliamentary Language—It is not Parliamentary language to speak of any body of men in this House as otherwise than a body of independent Members, [216] 1678

Opposed Business—The House having agreed to the Resolution that Opposed Business shall not be taken after 12.30 at night, and immediately thereafter the Order of the Day for the Second Reading of a Bill being read (it being then past 12.30 a.m.), Mr. Melly asked Mr. Speaker if it was consistent with the Resolution to proceed with this Bill on which various Amendments were to be proposed? Mr. Speaker was of opinion that the Resolution ought not to apply to Orders of the Day standing on the Paper before the Resolution was adopted by the House. The House ought to have full knowledge of the passing of the Resolution before it was enforced, [214] 1364

Opposed Business—Money Bills—Mr. Fawcett having asked whether the East India Loan Bill, being a Money Bill for India, was exempted from the Rule that Opposed Business should not be taken after half-past Twelve o'clock? Mr. Speaker said that the Bill was undoubtedly a Money Bill, and as such exempted from the Rule, [215] 1109

Order—When a subject is already before the House—Mr. Auberon Herbert having given Notice "To call attention to the Criminal Law Amendment Act of 1871," and notice being taken that there was already before the House a Bill to repeal that Act, which stood for consideration to-morrow — Mr. Speaker said there could be no doubt that the hon. Member for Nottingham would be out of Order in moving his Resolution that evening, seeing that the matter was already before the House, [217] 38

Order—Where a matter is already decided—The House having by a previous vote refused to entertain the proposal that the mode of conducting the Business of the House be referred to a Select Committee, it is out of Order to propose now, by another Amendment, that such a course should be taken.—Business of the House—Resolution, [214] 287

Order — Nomination of Committees — Peace Preservation (Ireland) Bill. Order for Committee read. Mr. Pim said he would move that the Order for Committee be discharged, and that the Bill be referred to a Select Committee, consisting of the Marquess of Hartington and Mr. Secretary Bruce, together with all Members who represented Irish constituencies—Mr. Speaker said the hon. Member might move to refer the Bill to a Select Committee, but the nomination of that Committee must be made the subject of a separate Motion, [216] 509

Order—Precedence of Government Orders of the Day — The House having ordered (July 28) "That on Wednesday next, and every succeeding Wednesday, Government Orders of the Day have precedence." On the next Wednesday (July 30), Mr. Collins rose to a point of Order—A Bill, of which he had charge, had been placed No. 21 on the Paper, while the Bill of the hon. Member for Sheffield had been placed No. 4—and he desired to ask Mr. Speaker whether that precedence was in accordance with the Resolution? Mr. Speaker said that the proper construction of the Order was, that the Government had not only power to place their own Orders, but those of private Members, according to their pleasure, and that therefore the Bill of the hon. Member for Sheffield properly had precedence that day, [217] 1256

Order—Rules of Debate—Mr. Melly, having read an extract from a speech of the hon. Member for Derby (Mr. Plimsoll), made out of this House, reflecting on the conduct of officers of the Board of Trade, asked the President of the Board whether his attention had been called to that speech, and whether such statement is correct? Objection being made, Mr. Speaker said that he saw nothing irregular in putting a Question calling the attention of the President of the Board of Trade to the statement made out of the House. But that Question being followed by another, "and whether such statement is correct?" Mr. Speaker said that if the hon. Member questioned the statement made by a Member of the House, that proceeding would be irregular; but he did not understand that to be so—the hon. Member for Stoke only inquired of the President of the Board of Trade, whether the conduct of the officers of the Board of Trade was such as described by the hon. Member for Derby.—Mercantile Marine—Loss of the "Sea Queen," [215] 105

Order — Withdrawal of Amendment — The Votes and Journals—Question arising, Mr. Hodgson said that an high authority had stated a few days ago that an Amendment moved by any hon. Member must be withdrawn by that hon. Member himself. He certainly never withdrew his Amendment, and therefore trusted it might be considered as still standing for approval. Mr. Speaker said that the hon. Member was understood to have withdrawn his Amendment; and the Amendment having appeared on the Proceedings of the House as being withdrawn, it must be taken to be so.—Railway and Canal Traffic Bill, [216] 1299

Privilege—Money Bills—Mr. Speaker pointed out that a Private Bill (Bradford Improvement Bill) which had come down from the House of Lords contained clauses which imposed a tax upon the people, and should therefore have been introduced into this House, and not into the other House of Parliament: But Mr. Speaker said that as the Promoters were not responsible for the introduction of the Bill into the other House, and had signified their intention to withdraw those clauses, he thought this course would sufficiently repair the irregularity. After some observations, the Bill was read the second time, [215] 1676

Questions—Alteration of Questions by the Clerks at the Table—One of the established Rules of the House with reference to Questions is that no argumentative matter shall be introduced; and if such matter appears it is always struck out by Mr. Speaker's authority, [217] 37, 803

Questions—Latitude of Observations in putting a Question—Mr. Whalley, in putting a Question having reference to the expenses in the trial of "The Tichborne Case," proposed to offer some remarks. Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Gentleman was out of Order in going into the merits of the case. If the hon. Gentleman would confine himself to the expenses incurred in consequence of the prosecution of this person he would be quite in Order.—The Queen v. Castro, [214] 1611; [215] 644; [216] 409

Questions—Latitude in Answering—Mr. Plimsoll having put a Question to the President of the Board of Trade relating to the conduct of officers of the Board:—Mr. Chichester Fortescue made an explanatory Answer at some length. Sir John Hay rose to Order. Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Member for Derby has asked a Question having reference to the conduct of the officers of the Board of Trade;—Undoubtedly the House will be of opinion that the President of the Board of Trade, in answering a Question of this kind, is entitled to considerable indulgence. — Merchant Shipping Act — The "Eleanor," [215] 641

Questions—Limitation of Answer—Mr. Bruen having asked Mr. M'Mahon what course he intends to pursue with regard to the Union Rating (Ireland) Bill, and the latter proposing to answer at some length — Mr. Speaker said he must remind the hon. Member that he was quite out of Order in explaining the provisions of his Bill on the Question now put to him, [216] 1711

Standing Order, 24th July, 1860—Mail Packet Contracts—The Standing Order [of the 24th July, 1860] is very clear and explicit. It lays down the Rule that every Packet and Telegraphic Contract shall be laid upon the Table of the House, accompanied by a Minute of the Lords of the Treasury setting forth the grounds on which they have proceeded to authorize it. Now the Contract in question has, no doubt, been laid on the Table of the House, accompanied by a letter from an officer of the Treasury to the Postmaster General; but such a letter in no sense fulfils the requirement of the Standing Order, and therefore, in my judgment, that Contract is not in a condition to be considered in its present shape by the House.—Cape of Good Hope and Zanzibar Mail Contract, [216] 1001
